What is Surrealism?

Surrealism is an art movement that said the way to find truth in the world was through the subconscious mind and dreams, rather than through logical thought.

The movement began in the mid-1920s in France and included artists, poets, and writers who expressed their ideas in their work.

Surrealism explored the subconscious areas of the mind. The artwork often made little sense and was unrealistic as it was usually trying to depict a dream or random thought.

Famous Surrealist artists include Rene Magritte, Salvador Dali, Vladimir Kush, Cyril Rolando and Rafal Olbinski.
