Policy for Hearing and Dealing with Complaints

Maplewell Hall Complaints Policy

Our school is committed to working in close partnership with all members of the school community. The school places great value on the role which parents and carers can play in supporting children's learning. Staff and governors actively encourage a positive relationship between the school and the families of children who attend the school. We also desire to have good relations with our neighbours and the wider community.

Our policy is:

- To provide a fair complaints procedure which is clear and easy to use for anyone wishing to make a complaint
- To publicise the existence of our complaints procedure so that people know how to contact us to make a complaint
- To make sure everyone at Maplewell Hall knows what to do if a complaint is received
- To make sure all complaints are investigated fairly and in a timely way
- To make sure that complaints are, wherever possible, resolved and that relationships are repaired
- To gather information which helps us to improve what we do

Where any concerns are raised we aim to resolve these as quickly and as efficiently as possible. Usually concerns that are raised can be resolved very quickly through the school's day to day communication between parents and the school staff. However, for those situations where this is not the case, we have a more formal process to investigate and deal with complaints. Our complaints procedure is detailed on the following pages.

Who can raise a complaint?

Complaints may come from any person or organisation that has an interest in the school. This policy does not cover complaints from staff who should follow the relevant internal policy.

Timescales from submitting a complaint

To enable a proper investigation, concerns or complaints should be brought to the attention of the school as soon as possible, usually within 3 months. This time limit does not apply if it can be shown that there were good reasons for not making the complaint earlier and it is still possible to investigate the complaint properly.

Confidentiality

All complaint information will be handled sensitively, telling only those who need to know and following any relevant data protection requirements.

Maplewell School Complaints Procedure

It is in everyone's interest that complaints are resolved at the earliest possible stage. The experience of the first contact between the complainant and the school can be crucial in determining whether the complaint will escalate. To this end all staff and governors are aware of the procedure to be followed if a complaint is raised. Also, whilst not wishing to encourage complaints, complainants should note that they have a duty to raise a matter as soon as conveniently possible.

The school operates a 3 stage complaints procedure outlined below. If your complaint is about the headteacher, you should refer your formal written complaint to the chair of governors to be dealt with under Stage 2 of this procedure.

Where the following procedure refers to the headteacher, they may delegate any of these functions to another member of appropriate staff if appropriate. In exceptional circumstances, the headteacher may commission an independent investigator to undertake an investigation on behalf of the school.

Informal concern/complaint

An initial concern should be raised with the class teacher or the member of staff concerned. This can be done in writing, by telephone or in person by appointment. The vast majority of concerns can be dealt with at this informal stage. It would be helpful to identify at this point what outcome you are looking for in order for us to address your concern quickly and effectively.

If you are not a parent/carer of a child at our school, please start at Stage 1 and make contact with the headteacher to discuss your concerns.

Stage 1: Formal complaint to the headteacher

If your concern is not resolved at the informal stage you can make a formal complaint to the headteacher. Your complaint should usually be made in writing indicating your desired outcome from the complaint (a form is enclosed for this purpose).

Your complaint will be acknowledged within 5 school days and may include an indicative date for a written response. The headteacher will be responsible for ensuring that your complaint is investigated appropriately. They may meet with you to clarify details of your complaint and the resolution that is being sought. The headteacher will investigate the complaint further and make every effort to resolve the issue.

Dependent upon the nature of the issues raised, the matter will either continue to be dealt with through the school complaints procedure, or by other procedures such as the disciplinary or safeguarding procedures. If this happens you will be informed of this fact but you will not be advised of the outcome of these proceedings.

On conclusion of the investigation the headteacher will write to you with all appropriate information in relation to the complaint and information on any outcome(s). The response will also inform you of the next stage of the procedure in case you are not satisfied with the response.

Stage 2: Formal complaint to the chair of governors

If you are dissatisfied with the headteacher's response or your complaint concerns the conduct of the headteacher then you can make a formal complaint to the chair of governors.

Your complaint should be made in writing to the chair of governors, care of the school, within 10 school days of the date of the headteacher's response to you. Please provide a copy of the written complaint, a copy of the headteacher's letter concluding Stage 1 and give details in writing of why they are not satisfied with the outcome.

At this stage the chair of governors will generally handle the complaint but can delegate this to a nominated governor. In exceptional circumstances, the chair of governors may commission an independent investigator to undertake an investigation on behalf of the school.

You will receive an acknowledgment of receipt of your complaint within 5 school days and an indicative timescale for response.

The governor will investigate the complaint and make every effort to resolve the issue. They may meet with you if they need clarification or further information is necessary.

On conclusion of the investigation you will receive a written response of the outcome reached and the process for appeal.

Stage 3: Formal complaint complaints appeal panel

If you remain dissatisfied with the response to your complaint you may request that it is reviewed by the complaints appeal panel by writing to the clerk to the governing body within 10 school days of the date of the letter notifying you of the outcome of Stage 2.

The clerk will write to acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 school days. The letter will explain the process which is to be followed and information about the how the panel will operate.

The clerk will convene a governing body complaints appeal panel and ask you to provide details of your appeal and any relevant supporting evidence.

The panel will usually consist of 3 governors from the school. These governors will have no previous knowledge of the complaint. If this is not possible for any reason, then alternative arrangements will be made and communicated to you. They may meet with you if they need clarification or further information is necessary.

The remit of the complaints appeal panel is to:

- dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
- uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
- decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint;
- recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.

You will be notified in writing of the panel's decision, usually within 5 days. The letter will confirm the end of the school's and governing body's involvement with the complaint and explain any further rights of appeal.

Further rights of appeal

If you have completed the school procedure and remain dissatisfied, you have the right to refer your complaint to the Secretary of State through the School Complaints Unit (SCU). The Secretary of State will usually not consider any complaints until the school's complaint procedure has been exhausted.

The SCU will not normally re-investigate the substance of the complaint. They will look at whether the complaints policy and any other relevant statutory policies were adhered to and comply with education legislation.

The SCU can be contacted on 0370 000 2288, or in writing to:
Department for Education School Complaints Unit
2nd Floor
Piccadilly Gate
Store Street
Manchester
M1 2WD

Complaints against an individual governor

If your complaint concerns the chair of governors or an individual governor you should write to the clerk to the governing body. The clerk will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 school days. The letter will explain the process that will be followed and the expected timescale for response.

The chair of governors will consider complaints about an individual governor and the vice chair will consider complaints against the chair. If for any reason this is not appropriate then another governor will be nominated.

On conclusion of the investigation you will receive a written response detailing all appropriate information in relation to the complaint and information on any outcome(s). There will be no further right of appeal for complaints against an individual governor.

Timescales for response

Our aim is to address your complaint in a timely and efficient manner. However, there may be occasions when we are unable to achieve the timescale indicated. In this event, we will write to you outlining the reason for the delay and provide you with a new timescale for the conclusion of that part of the process.

Unreasonable Complainants

School is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the school. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

School defines unreasonable complainants as 'those who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the school, hinder our consideration of their or other people's complaints'.

A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:-

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance;
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved;
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure;
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice;

- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales;
- makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced;
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds;
- repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed);
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education;
- seeks an unrealistic outcome;
- makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.

A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so either face-to-face, by telephone or in writing or electronically:-

- maliciously;
- aggressively;
- using threats, intimidation or violence;
- using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language;
- knowing it to be false;
- using falsified information;
- publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media such as in social media websites and newspapers.

Complainants should limit the numbers of communications with a school while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues the headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact School causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after 6 months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. This may include banning an individual from School

Barring from the School Premises

Although fulfilling a public function, schools are private places. The public has no automatic right of entry. Schools will therefore act to ensure they remain a safe place for pupils, staff and other members of their community.

If a parent's behaviour is a cause for concern, a school can ask him/her to leave school premises. In serious cases, the headteacher or the local authority can notify them in writing that their implied licence to be on school premises has been temporarily revoked subject to any representations that the parent may wish to make. Schools should always give the parent the opportunity to formally express their views on the decision to bar in writing.

The decision to bar should then be reviewed, taking into account any representations made by the parent, and either confirmed or lifted. If the decision is confirmed the parent should be notified in writing, explaining how long the bar will be in place.

Anyone wishing to complain about being barred can do so, by letter or email, to the headteacher or Chair of Governors. However, complaints about barring cannot be escalated to the Department for Education. Once the school's own complaints procedure has been completed, the only remaining avenue of appeal is through the Courts; independent legal advice must therefore be sought.
